OUR INDIANS

FIRES LIGHTED BY OUR KICKAPOO INDIANS ALONG OUR VERMILION RIVER HAVE NOT BURNED ONE HUNDRED YEARS TO ILLUMINATE OUR MEMORIES.

VERMILION RIVER

VERMILION WAS PAID OFF BY "PRAIRIES" VERMILION THAT FLOWS TO THE SEA WHY DREAM OF A RIVER THAT IS FAIRER, WHEN YOU HAVE BEEN SUCH A CHARM TO ME.

In there no beauty in all this land as fair can see no beauty here, can see no beauty there, "an see no beauty in the clouds, or sunset red, if not, then the beauty of the soul has fled. There's beauty in the fog of the lowland low beauty in the twilight, and in the morning glow, there's beauty for us in this land so fair, without charms for one just everywhere
